

The Bets Are High for Tony Pace in Atlantic City

NASHUA, NH: Local entertainer Tony Pace the star of The Tony Pace Show started performing at Resorts Atlantic City Casino on March 7, 2004 and has been amazing audiences ever since. Resorts Atlantic City has been extremely impressed with Pace's performances and has extended his contract thru September.

Pace has made a huge impact on fans in the New England area for years and now he's doing the same with audiences in Atlantic City. After only a few shows Resorts Atlantic City knew Pace's original performing style could not be beat and signed him for another five months. Pace can mesmerize any audience with his three octave vocal range, and impersonations of people like Rod Stewart, Cher, Michael Jackson, and many more. One fan said "Tony amazed me with his voice range, his impersonations, his spontaneity, his humor, and theatrical ability." There is no typical description because Tony Pace is not a typical performer. Several dates for The Tony Pace Show in Atlantic City are already sold out. Pace performs every Sunday, Monday, and Wednesday at 2:00pm in the Screening Room Theater.
